

Sightseeing

Art starts

Come the dead zone (the first two weeks after New Year's Eve), folks say thank goodness for art gallery openings. Art Walk was a bit wet for our camera, but The Art Center's opening with Suzzette Solano as featured artist and Sherri Chung at the keyboard was just right Jan. 5. A good number of others agreed, filtering into this fun space to meet, greet, look and listen.

Cheryl Lust (left) and her daughter, Jennifer, were attending their first opening at The Art Center.

Artists Patty Magee and Solomon Dixon discovered they were "of like mind" in their approach to art.

Michael Simon and Rita Blun discovered they both grew up in Southbridge, Mass., when he recognized the antiques store in one of her watercolors.

Artist Marsha and Eddie Hatcher took a break from talking art.