

...white Branch should be the major vehicle for disseminating the authentic history of African

During her speech, Dr. Flemming often referred to her mother, Mrs. Corrine Joyner which was published in 1994. She is the mother of two daughters.

Kerry started by covering foreign policy, particularly

Local Artists Blaze Own Trail

•The Jacksonville Consortium of African American Artists Offer Opportunities for Minorities

Local artists shown above are Pat Moman Bell, Frances Bradley, Leon Bradley, Yvon Brown, Solomon Dixon, Annelies Dykgraaf, Vince Filer, Marsha Hatcher, Joyce Lewis, Gil Mayers, Princess Simpson Rashid, Joe Sanders, Roosevelt Watson, Fred (Rootman) Woods, and Daniel Wynn.

By Nicole Williams

Lined with splashes of color and creativity, the walls of Henrietta's Caf , on 9th and

Main St. display the work of members of The Jacksonville Consortium of African American Artists - a non-profit organization, who say, they are "Building Bridges Through the Arts."

JCAA's opening reception, held at the caf  on Sept. 16, harvested a crowd of nearly 200 supporters. The exhibition,

...continued on pages 10 & 14